THE HUMAN ICON

A Comparative Study of Hindu and Orthodox Christian Beliefs

CHRISTINE MANGALA FROST

Artwork provided by Juliet Venier

Inspired by a desire to clear up the misunderstandings that exist between the two religions, The Human Icon is a study in how two faiths, superficially dissimilar, can nevertheless find meeting points everywhere.

Tracing the long history of Orthodox Christianity in India, from the Thomas Christians of ancient times to the distinctive theology of Paulos Mar Gregorios and the Kottayam School, Frost explores the impact of Hindu thought on Indian Christianity and considers the potential for confluence.

With a breadth of interest that spans Hindu bhakti, Orthodox devotional theology, Vedānta and theosis, as well as meditational Yoga and hesychastic prayer, Frost offers a fresh perspective on how the devotees of both faiths approach the ideal of divinisation, and presents a thoughtful, modern methodology for a dialogue of life.
