To Sound the Depths of Love Divine

10.15am-11.15am

Spirituality and the Art of Making

The Revd Michaela Youngson

The President of the Methodist Conference is at Wesley House as part of her visit to the East Anglia District of the Methodist Church. She reflects on the connections between faith, the spiritual and human creativity through her own artwork.

The Revd Michaela Youngson

11.30am-12.45pm

Music for Body, Mind and Soul

Sarah Rodgers and Geraldine Allen

Discovering deeper connections in music for worship and spiritual reflection. This session will aim to help participants to gain a new experience of music for themselves and in the context of their church worship by hearing more, connecting more and understanding better how music can thread through liturgy. Active singing and musical demonstrations will be part of the session.

Geraldine is a professional clarinettist and Sarah is a professional composer and conductor. They worship at Swaffham Methodist Church.

Sarah Rodgers

12.45pm-1.30pm

Lunch

Please bring your own lunch – or there are several places nearby. Tea/coffee will be provided.

Geraldine Allen

1.35pm-2.15pm

'Windows on Heaven': Icons, art or theology?

Fr Dragos Herescu

An Orthodox priest and principal of the Institute for Orthodox Christian Studies in Cambridge, Fr Dragos reflects on the inseparability of theology, art and the life of faith in understanding and praying with icons in the Orthodox tradition.

Fr Dragos Herescu

2.15pm-3.00pm

Closing Worship

In the College Chapel.
